Regents Ask For Grant: Three Floors Wanted

Murray State College will institute a two-year college program next fall that will lead to two new degrees: Associate in Arts and Associate in Science.

The two-year program was approved by the Murray Board of Regents Saturday morning.

The agriculture department will offer the Associate in Science degree for landscape foremen and for herdsmen; the industrial arts department will offer the same degree in the areas of industrial electronics, drafting and design, and graphic arts and printing. The business department will offer the Associate in Arts degree in the areas of secretarial science and general business administration.

The Murray board also approved a plan to expand the physical education department by offering a major in recreation. The name of the department was changed to Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Also, the department will jointly offer with the departments of biological sciences and agriculture a degree of Bachelor of Science in Recreation and Park Administration.

In other action, the board authorized application for funds to build a new men's dormitory and a grant to add three floors to the Education Building. One men's dormitory is presently under construction on the campus and a women's dormitory and 48 apartments for married students have previously been approved by the board.

A small building to be constructed on the Murray State Biological station at Kentucky Lake was also approved.

A new program in military science was approved which would permit junior college graduates and transfers from colleges that do not offer military science to complete reserve officer training in two years. The new program requires students to attend camp two summers.

A request by the Murray Student Organization to establish a judicial board was rejected by the regents.

New assignments to the faculty include Larry T. McClure, graduate assistant, industrial arts; Betty J. Hinton, associate professor of psychology; Estelle Adams, instructor of education; Belle Downing, assistant professor of education; Harold Law Wallace, assistant professor of history; Dew Drop Rowlett, physical education; T. P. Shultz, physical education; and Millie Ward, substitute instructor at College High School.

Resignations were accepted from Lola Boyd, assistant house director; Charles R. Redinger, biology department; H. C. Woodbridge, library; Annie S. Woodbridge, languages; and Shirley Garland Byassee, dietitian.

Leaves of absence were granted to Harvey Edgar, mathematics department, and Richard Jackson, College High.

Substantial leaves were approved for Joseph Cowin, industrial arts; Kenneth Harrell, history; James O. Williams, English; Lillian Lowry, College High; Franklin Fitch, education; Bobby McCarter, social sciences; Robert Urey, English; Mary E. Bell, education; Rolf E. P. King, languages; Frank Steely, history; Sue Fairlie, home economics; and Sidney P. Moss, English.

Someone called our hand on how flu is spelled. We spelled it flu.

Flu is probably more correct than flu, but anyone who has the flu feels like his throat is a flu.

At any rate we must be over it because all our pills are gone.

We were over at Fulton Saturday night to speak to the students of Fulton High School. The staffs of the school annual and the school newspaper.

We figured it would be a cozy little get together and we could hold forth at some length telling all we know about the newspaper business which would take all of twenty minutes.

Imagine our consternation when we found out it was the highlight of the year with about sixty students and numerous faculty members on hand.

We must have done all right however since our wife said we did. That's one good thing about wives. They can lift you up when you need it the most. However they can also let you down very effectively.

That's life. If you get to thinking too much of yourself, it helps for someone to set the record straight so you can live with other folks.

Progressive Dinner Planned Saturday

The Murray State College Women's Society is having a progressive dinner Saturday, February 13. Co-chairmen in charge are Mrs. Bailey Core and Mrs. Eugene Schenbacher.

The main course will be served in the Student Union cafeteria. Members are asked to please note change of location.

Those who have not been contacted by the telephone committee, are asked to please contact Mrs. Leonard Whitman, 753-6002.

Ronald E. Jones On Aircraft Carrier

USS CORAL SEA (CVA 43) (PH-TNC) Jan. 28 — Airman Ronald E. Jones, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Jones of Walnut Drive, Murray, Ky., is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea operating with the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The Coral Sea was scheduled to arrive in Subic Bay, Philippines Feb. 2 for a period of rest and relaxation.

While deployed in the Western Pacific the Coral Sea provides a mobile base for air squadrons operating with the Seventh Fleet.

The ship departed Alameda, Calif. Dec. 7 and spent Christmas and New Years at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii enroute to the Western Pacific.

While there she participated in combat training and an operational readiness inspection before departing for the Far East Jan. 16.

The couple has two children, Denise, age 9, and Janet, age 4.

Debate Team Wins Third Place In Gorilla Tourney

The Murray State College entry in the Junior Division of the Gorilla Forensic Tournament at Kansas State College, Pittsburg, Kansas, won third place last week. The Murray team was Mike Smith, freshman from Calloway County H.S., and Mike Nims, freshman from Paducah Telford H.S.

Ninety-three teams were entered in the Junior Division by fifty-three colleges and universities from an area of fifteen states. Four hundred students participated in the Junior and Senior Division.

The Murray teams debated in six qualifying rounds. Three colleges were undefeated in these rounds: Murray State College, Bethel College of North Newton, Kansas, and Stephen F. Austin College of Nacogdoches, Texas. The Murray team of Smith and Nims defeated North-eastern Oklahoma A & M, North-eastern Oklahoma State, Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.), University of Houston, Kansas City Junior College, and Wisconsin State University (Whitewater, Wis.).

In the quarter-final elimination round, Smith and Nims defeated Purdue University. In the semi-final round the team lost to Hutchinson Junior College who then defeated Wichita State University in the finals.

The Murray State Senior Division team lost four of their six qualifying debates by a total of five points. These debates were against Western Illinois University, Southwestern Missouri State, University of Texas, and The University of Southern Mississippi. They also lost to Northern Illinois University, a semi-finalist, and defeated Ottawa University (Kansas).

The team was accompanied by Prof. J. Albert Tracy who was the tournament judge for seven debates. February 12-13 the same two teams will compete in the Mid-South Debate Tournament at Conway Arkansas State Teachers College.

Contribution Made By Music Department Toward Choir's Tour

The Music Department of the Murray Women's Club has presented a check to the Murray State College a capella choir to contribute toward their world tour. This contribution is part of a series of financial aid which is offered by the Music Department of the Women's Club to musicians in the pursuit of their professions.

It is not only the purpose of the monthly programs to provide a performing atmosphere for member musicians; it is also the Music Department's purpose to maintain and further the musical experience of young musicians, enabling them to enjoy as many benefits as is possible as they grow to maturity.

In this respect, the Music Department is proud to make this contribution to the Murray State College Choir, Mrs. Robert Baar, chairman, said.

Accepting the check for $50.00 was Robert Baar, choir director.

Grant Is Made For Furnishings For Lutheran Chapel

Aid Association for Lutherans, Appleton, Wis., has awarded a $1,000 fraternal benevolence grant to the Western District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod to be used for furnishings for the new Chapel and Student Center at Murray State College.

This is the 23rd district-owned Lutheran Chapel and student center to be awarded an AAL benevolence grant. The grant will be used to purchase furniture and equipment for the student lounge to be used by Lutheran students. The student center is scheduled for completion this month and will be served by Rev. Stephen G. Masak Jr.

In 1964 grants were given to the Lutheran Student Center at the University of Illinois, Champaign; Religion Center at the University of Houston, Houston, Tex.; Martin Luther Chapel at Michigan State University, Lansing; Lutheran Student Chapel at the University of North Dakota; Dr. Martin Luther Chapel, New Ulm, Minn.; Gamma Delta Chapter House at Winona State College, Winona, Minn.; and the Wisconsin Synod Student Center at South Dakota State College, Brookings.

Funeral Of W. Z. Carter Wednesday

The funeral of W. Z. Carter, who passed away in Port Charlotte, Florida, on Saturday morning, will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday at the First Christian Church of Murray with Rev. William Porter officiating.

Burial will be in the city cemetery.

Friends may call at the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home after 12:00 o'clock noon on Tuesday.

Mr. Carter suffered a stroke on last Wednesday morning and was considered in critical condition, however he did improve some on Thursday and was able to communicate with his family. His condition worsened and on Saturday morning he passed away.

Mr. Carter was Superintendent of City Schools here in Murray for seven years and then moved to a similar position as Director of Institutional Education for the state's penal institutions.

Retiring from this position on January 1 of this year, he and Mrs. Carter moved to Port Charlotte, Fla., where he had gone to Florida for a needed rest and vacation.

Dallas O. Bucy Passes Away Today

Dallas O. Bucy passed away at 6:00 o'clock this morning at the age of 77, following an extended illness. Death came at the Murray Hospital.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Martha Bucy of New Concord; three sons Robert D. of New Concord, Allen of 111 Spawmire and Woodrow of Murray; and one sister Mrs. Floy Bucy Brown of Robstown, Texas; three sons, Edgar of Paducah, Nicos of Florida and Loyd of Murray; five granddaughters; and three great grandchildren.

He was a member of the Pleasant Valley Church of Christ. The funeral will be held in the chapel of the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday with Bro. Henry Hargis and Rev. Gerald Owen officiating.

Burial will be in the McCoultun Cemetery.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Warning against any "miscalculation" of America's strength, President Johnson said today the United States will "answer any threat, pay any price" to maintain freedom.

The Chief executive made the statement at a White House ceremony immediately after leaving a National Security Council meeting on the Viet Nam crisis.

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet premier Alexei Kosygin today demanded the withdrawal of U. S. forces and arms from South Viet Nam and "an end to armed provocations" against Communist North Viet Nam.

But Kosygin, as reported by Tass, made no mention of his earlier pledge of Soviet arms to Communist North Viet Nam in the event of an American attack.

134 Children From Faster Seal Center Treated In January

The West Kentucky Center for Handicapped Children at Paducah provided safe and treatment services for 134 children from 13 western Kentucky counties during the month of January. Palmer Hughes, Administrator of the Easter Seal facility at Paducah, also announced that 11 new patients were enrolled for therapy during the month of January.

Physical, occupational and speech therapy treatments during the month totaled 646. Of this number, 399 were speech therapy, 188 were physical therapy and occupational therapy treatments numbered 61.

The patients coming to the Center during the month were from the following counties:

Calloway, Ballard, Caldwell, Carlisle, Crittenden, Fulton, Graves, Hickman, Hopkins, Livingston, Lyon, McCracken and Marshall.

Follows Attack On American Compound With Many Injured

By MICHAEL T. MALLOY
United Press International

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. and South Vietnamese fighter-bombers today blasted military installations inside Communist North Viet Nam for the second day.

Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, South Vietnamese military strongman, said that 24 Vietnamese Skyraiders bombed and strafed Communist installations at Vinh Linh with the support of American aircraft.

Khanh said "70 per cent of the objectives were destroyed" in the strike against Vinh Linh, a short distance beyond the border of North Viet Nam. He said a "number of smoke columns and fires were seen in the area of the objectives."

The U.S. Embassy confirmed the air strike report but gave no details of the follow-up to Sunday's massive U.S. jet plane raids on Dong Hoi.

The Communists claimed 10 "U.S. planes" were shot down during the two days. The United States announced one American plane was lost Sunday and one South Vietnamese plane was shot down today.

Retorted Developments

The new raids came amid these related developments:

Washington — President Johnson warned against any "miscalculation" of American strength and said the United States will "answer any threat, pay any price" to see that freedom does not perish.

Moscow — Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin met with representatives of the North Vietnamese government. No details of the meeting were announced. The North Viet Nam government charged the United States had provoked a "special war" in Viet Nam.

A senior Communist military official warned that Red China could not stand idly by while "U.S. imperialism" extended the war against the Red guerrillas in the South Viet Nam to North Viet Nam.

Moscow — The Soviet press denounced the retaliatory raids as "barbaric" and warned they could have the "most serious consequences." The U.S. Embassy took no comment against possible protest demonstrations.

Paris — The NATO council was called in the special session to hear U.S. explanation of the retaliatory raids and U.S. ambassadors in various capitals made similar reports to government officials.

The U.S. embassy confirmed Khanh's report but refused to give any specific details about the part played by the American planes.

A statement issued by the U.S. Embassy said only:

"In furtherance of the action announced yesterday by the action prime minister and the U.S. ambassador, it was made known that military action was taken today by Vietnamese and U.S. aircraft against other military installations in North Viet Nam."

The seriousness with which the U.S. government viewed the situation was underlined by orders for the immediate withdrawal of 1,819 American dependents from "South Viet Nam. Wives and children hurriedly packed belongings for the evacuation which will begin Monday.

Forty-nine American jets attacked a Communist troop staging area at Dong Hoi Sunday in retaliation for a Viet Cong guerrilla raid on a U.S. base that left eight Americans dead and 126 wounded. It was the worst defeat suffered by American forces in the years — long history of the Vietnamese war against the Communist guerrillas.

Khanh said one of the Sky-raiders was shot down in the raid today but that the pilot bailed out safely over South Vietnamese territory.

He said Air Vice Marshal Nguyen Cao Ky, commander of the South Viet Nam air force, met the raiders in person and was wounded in the arm when his plane was hit by four bullets.

Vinh Linh is about 75 miles south of Dong Hoi — the target of Sunday's air strikes. It is about five miles north of the 17th Parallel — the line of demarcation between North and South Viet Nam.

Civitan Club Hears Talk On Lion Eye Bank

The Murray Civitan Club met at the Southside Restaurant last week with 26 members and 4 guests present. The guests included: Starky Colson, Dr. Melvin Henty from the college, Bernice Wilford from Ryan Milk Company, and Rob Ray from the Bank of Murray. Mr. Ray and Mr. Wilford, representing the Murray Lions Club which is also concerned with civic affairs and the needs of the unfortunate, entertained the club with a very informative talk and film. The film, "Why With a Hindfoot," was shown. It is concerned with the Kentucky "Lion" eye foundation. Mr. Ray pointed out that the eye bank was started in 1956 for the use of Kentucky and Southern Indiana. During this time, more than 700 patients have been given treatment and approximately 23,000 persons have pledged their eyes. Also, 194 corneal transplants have been performed.

The Lions Club has accomplished much in this foundation. Mr. Ray has access to the pledge cards and will answer any questions concerning the eye bank.

After this talk and film showing, the Civitans made further plans for their annual Pancake Day which will be held Saturday, March 20th, at the Maple Leaf and Rudy's. Once again, the merchants and businessmen of Murray will come forth with their civic pride in helping to raise the best of Pancake Day ever. Tickets will be on sale soon. "You are not only going to be enjoying some of the best pancakes ever, but you will also be helping some unfortunate person," a spokesman said.

Claude B. Tidwell Dies On Saturday

Claude B. Tidwell, age 77, passed away at 3:45 on Saturday following a heart attack. Death came at his home near Kirksey.

Surviving are his wife, Jessie Tidwell; a daughter Mrs. Jessie Cunningham, Benton, route three; two sisters Mrs. Herbert Hargis and Mrs. Ocus Swift of Murray; one son, three brothers, Oile of Murray, route two, Herman of Murray, route three and Lynn of Murray; two grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

He was a member of the Hickory Grove Church of Christ. The funeral will be held at the Mt. Carmel Methodist Church at 2:00 p.m. today with Bro. Harold Irwin and Bro. Larry Breedlove officiating. Burial will be in the Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

Palbearers will be Claude Smith, Monroe Hester, Ocus Bradley, Wendell Norworthy, Boyd Norworthy and John B. Smith.

The J. H. Churchill Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Safe Way

By Irvin Lee

What are the things relative to the church that have been points of controversy? Which doctrines in God's great scheme of redemption have been debated and questioned?
I do not know of a single detail about the Lord's church that has not been challenged neither do I know of a single doctrine He taught that religious men have not contradicted.
Do you? Write me and mention anything about the Lord's work and plan that has been allowed to stand without question or opposition from men if you do know of one such thing.

Satan transforms himself into an angel of light. His ministers appear as ministers of righteousness. The teachers who are false are compared to wolves, but they come in sheep's clothing. A word to be emphasized in 1 John 4:1 is the word
"many."

"Beloved, believe not every-spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world." If many of these false prophets are, are you in the land, it is easy to see why we should give such attention to make our calling and election sure. (Please read 2 Peter 1:10; 2 Corinthians 11:12-15; Matthew 7:15-23.)

Is a doctrine likely wrong if it is often called in question? Is a body of people likely wrong if it is spoken against? The answer to these questions is no. The tree that has had so many sticks thrown at it may be the tree with the apples on it.
The Jews at Rome referred to the church as a sect, and they let Paul know that they knew it was everywhere spoken against. They did have enough interest or curiosity to want to hear Paul. Acts 28:22.
Peter mentioned that the way of truth would be evil spoken of, but that many would follow the pernicious ways of the false teachers. (2 Peter 2:1-4.) Our Lord explained that few would travel the narrow way that leads to life, while many would follow the crowd that goes the broad way to destruction. (Matthew 7:13-14.) He further stated that the false prophets were well spoken of while the true prophets were persecuted. (Please read Luke 6:26; Acts 7:51-52; Matthew 5:10-12.)

Some teachers can be so in love with money, praise, and themselves that they speak things which they ought not and tend to defy their shame and their appetites. Such men may be capable of cunning craftiness, vain-deceit, and the sleight of men as they make merchant of the law of God. All should be warned of the dangerous influence of men who speak perverse things. We cannot know which teachers are the false ones except by searching the scriptures.
Please take time to read the following passages if you would get good from this article: 2 Peter 2:1;
Acts 20:29-31; Ephesians 4:15; Titus
1:9-11; 2 Tim. 3:1; 2:15-18; John 12:42-43; Colossians 2:8; Hebrews
3:12-13.

I hope to preach to you in the American Legion Hall in Murray, Ky., at 7:15 each evening from February 16 through February 21. The service will also be service at 10:00 in the morning on February 21.

Singing Is Natural With Hote Casella

By PATRICIA MCCORMACK

United Press-International
NEW YORK (UPI) — Children, shy and somewhat afraid, usually ask Hote Casella if he has a light and where she puts her bow and arrow.

And they make her promise not to hurt them.

Most of all, they are surprised that her use of the language is as good as that of their teachers and parents. No "ugh's" and such.

Miss Casella, a mezzo-soprano, something that comes naturally to her through her heritage as one-half Cherokee Indian.

In costume of the Plains Indians,
Miss Casella accompanies herself with drums and rattles.

Her programs for children, —
"From Teepee to Totem Pole" — include gay melodies, ceremonial songs, work and play tunes, love-songs, tender lullabies and songs about the sun, wind and rain. Each has its own colorful story—from the Navajo, Zuni, Apache, Hopi, Tewa, Cheyenne and Chippewa.

"There is so much folk music popular today," she said, "but very little Indian folk music is sung.
After all, it is our native music."

An erroneous impression is that the Indians mistreated their women.

"The concept is that the women did all the work and the men had all the fun," she said. "The women did a lot of the work around the teepees because the men were doing the heavy work, hunting."

"Women actually had an active hand in the running of the tribes.

CHEAT PROBE REPORT—Maj.
Gen. Robert Warren, superintendent of the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colo., tells reporters that the investigation of cheating by cadets has been completed, and that 106 have resigned, including 29 footballers, 11 other athletes.

In many, they selected the chiefs.
"Indian children" were well-disciplined and well loved. They had a feeling of security."

Miss Casella would like to see the movie and television industry portray the nice side of the Indian culture, rather than playing up war all the time.

"The Indians who wanted were trying to protect their land, trying to keep what was theirs.
Their value of nature and the conservation of it is something of great value for today's world."

Toppers, Eastern Still Share Top Spot In The OVC

By United Press International
First place in the Ohio Valley Conference will probably continue to be shared by Western Kentucky and Eastern Kentucky after tonight's games, but don't count their OVC opponents out too soon.

Western and Eastern both are tied for the No. 1 spot in the unpredictable OVC with 6-1 records. Tonight Tennessee Tech will be at Bowling Green to play Western while Eastern journeys to Clarksville, Tenn., for its contest with Austin Peay.

In other Kentucky college basketball action tonight, Mississippi State makes a foray into the Bluegrass to meet Kentucky. East Tennessee is at Murray; Morehead tries to bounce back against Middle Tennessee; Villa Madonna travels to Georgetown; Georgia Southern is at Cumberland; Southern Illinois visits Owensboro to play Kentucky Wesleyan; Berea is at Maryville, Tenn., and Kentucky State plays Jamaica Saint.

Among Saturday games involving Kentucky teams, Kentucky won its fourth straight Southeastern Conference game when it dealt Ole Miss its worst defeat of the season, 102-65. The plodding Rebels tied a record for fouls recorded by a Kentucky opponent when the committeds 34. Their leading scorer, Fred Statler, left the game with a minute still remaining in the first half. Sophomore Louie Dampier led a well-balanced Wildcat attack with 17 points.

The Louisville Cardinals piled up their highest point total of the season Saturday when they laced North Texas State, 96-72. The Louisville victory vaulted the team into second place in the Missouri Valley Conference standings. Six-foot, 14-inch John Reuther became the Cardinals' fourth all-time high scorer by connecting with 24 points.

Louisville moved into second place by virtue of Wichita's defeat of St. Louis, 72-64, Saturday night. The Cardinals are idle until Saturday night when they take on Bradley at Freedom Hall.

Eastern Kentucky maintained its top position in the OVC by whipping Middle Tennessee 36-23, at Murfreesboro, Tenn., and Western kept abreast by a 96-79 victory over East Tennessee at Bowling Green. Murray State kept their flickering OVC hopes alive with a 92-79 defeat of Tennessee Tech. Morehead remained in a tailspin by going down before surprising Austin Peay, 81-73.

In other Saturday games Bellarmine sneaked by Villa Madonna 65-62 on the strength of two last-minute buckets by George Herbig; Kentucky Wesleyan lost to St. Francis at Altoona, Pa., 83-71; Centre upended Kenyon of Ohio 84-63; Cumberland crushed Oakland City 85-56; Union slipped by Berea 64-63; Ohio Wesleyan edged Transylvania 58-57; Central State routed Kentucky State 92-69; Southeastern Christian beat Kentucky Southern 93-73, and Paducah Junior College stonewalled for an early season forfeit by outshooting Vincennes, Ind., 72-64, at Paducah.

CHERRY PARFAIT

Three ingredients and about as many minutes make cherry pudding parfait. Stir in 1/2 cup of miniature marshmallows. Drain 1 (1 pound) can of pitted dark sweet cherries, reserving syrup for later use in fruit punch. Divide cherries among 4 parfait glasses, reserving 4 cherries for garnish. Add pudding and reserved cherries. Chill. Makes 4 servings.

Cut a finger from an old rubber glove and slip it over the top of the broom handle that keeps falling when placed against a wall.

NO SNOW, NO SKIING—They're hunting for snow at ski resorts in Pennsylvania, and the small placard held up by Alan Patterson, Laurel Mountain resort proprietor near Ligonier, gives you an idea of his feelings. That apparatus he's standing beside is an artificial snow maker, but the artificial snow melts right away.

Billy Casper Wins Bob Hope Golf Classic

By JAMES C. ANDERSON
UPI Sports Writer

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — Billy Casper, golf's "Mr. Consistent," is on top of the fairway world today after winning $15,170 and a new limousine in the $100,000 Bob Hope golf tournament.

Casper, the steady player in the game today, capped in a four foot putt for a birdie on the 90th hole of the desert classic to edge determined Arnold Palmer and smooth-swinging Tommy Aaron by a single stroke. His winning total was 248, 12 under par.

Former President Eisenhower, one of the crowd of 8,000 gathered around the 18th green, called the putt a "knee-knocker." But Casper, with thousands of dollars riding on the outcome, stroked it squarely in the center of the hole.

Grabs Top Earnings
The victory boosted Casper's winnings this year to $27,456.53, far in front of Palmer and Jack Nicklaus who were one-two in 1964.

Palmer won $6,600 in the Hope tournament while Nicklaus tied for fourth and collected $3,600.67.

"It's the most money I've won in a single tournament in my life," said the slimmed-down Corona, Calif., player. "I guess the third time is a charm. I've led this tournament twice before going into the final round but couldn't pull it off."

All of the drama of this desert marathon was crammed into the 17th and 18th holes at Bermuda Country Club.

Aggressive Arnie, playing in a group ahead of Casper, was a stroke behind. But on the 62nd-yard final hole, with the help of a tailwind, he whalloped his second shot on the back edge of the green, chipped close and sank the putt for a birdie, an 11-under total of 249 and a momentary tie with Casper.

Hits Key Shot
Casper smashed his tee shot 80 yards, then hit what he described as "the key shot of the tournament" — a four-wood to the center of the green, 30 feet from the pin. He admitted he misread his approach putt and left it three feet below the hole. But with characteristic quickness and authority that marks his game, he holed out with his trademarked "mallet-head" putter. That gave him 72 for the round to Palmer's 78. Aaron, the Gainesville, Ga., youngster, was almost overlooked but he made a great pressure putt of 11 feet for a birdie, a closing 70, and a tie with the illustrious Palmer.

In a 362 with Nicklaus were Frank Beard of Louisville, Ky., and Dave Marr of New Rochelle, N. Y. Big Jack closed with a 76. Beard 74 and Marr 73, and each collected $3,666.67. Stan Thirk, a little known club pro from Kansas City, and the veteran Don January shared seventh place and took home $2,500 apiece.

JUST TO MAKE the sub-zero north envious, no doubt, the Tropicans in Las Vegas, Nev., sends this 25-23-33 number, Joan Gallager by name, one of the dancers. She's from Australia.

MSC Tennis Team Will Have Only One Regular From Last Year's Team

Murray State College will have only one regular, returning from last year's tennis team which won the Ohio Valley Conference championship, but Coach Jim Harris is far from pessimistic about this year's team.

Harris, who has been on leave the last two years to work on a doctor's degree, has recruited an outstanding group of new players who may prove to be the best in Murray's history.

Included among them are Nick Barone, Chicago; Ron Underwood, Murray; Jim Novitsky, Hantramack, Mich.; Larry Niemeyer, University City, Mo.; Randy Hall, Winter Park, Fla.; and Billy Trunnell and Norman Woodward, Owensboro.

Barone is ranked second in Chicago and eleventh in Western's Men's singles; Underwood, just out of service, is a former Illinois State High School champion, and Novitsky is the sixteenth ranked junior in the nation and Michigan Men's Open and Detroit Public Parks champion.

Niemeyer was runner-up last year in the Missouri High School Tournament and is the seventh ranked junior in St. Louis. Hall, a graduate of Orlando Junior College, was a semi-finalist in the National Junior College Tournament last season; Trunnell and Woodward both played in the Kentucky High School "Tournament," being eliminated by the eventual winner.

Pat Bryan, Flora, Ill., is the sole returning starter from last year's team. He played No. 5 singles. However, two other squadmen, Billy Bryan, Flora, and Don Greenwell, Hialeah, Fla., will return, and Terry Tiffin, Owensboro, who lettered in '62 and '63, will rejoin the squad.

Dr. Chad Stewart, head of the MSC department of health, physical education, and recreation, coached the netters while Harris was on leave. In addition to winning the OVC championship last season, his team won 18 of 20 dual matches.

Since fielding its first tennis team nine years ago, Murray has won five OVC championships, has finished second three times, and third once.

The Racers netmen will open their season Feb. 23 against Northeast Missouri in an indoor match at Murray.

The complete schedule is as follows:

Date	Opponent	Location
Feb. 25	Northeast Mo.	Home
March 30	Southeast Mo.	Away
April 3	Pensacola Navy	Away
April 6	Loyola of New Orleans	Away
April 7	Louisiana State	Away

Lakers Meet North There On Tuesday

By LARRY MCKENZIE
Sports Reporter for the Calloway County Lakers

The Calloway County Lakers will play North Marshall Tuesday night, February 9, at North Marshall.

"Calloway is the only team that has beaten North when their team was at full strength. North Marshall is rated as the number 1 team in our region and number 8 in the State of Kentucky. Their starting line-up consist of all Seniors.

Members of Calloway's team that will be playing their last high school game on North Marshall's gym are Seniors Billy Miller, Jimmy Lamb, David Crick, and Jerry Joseph.

Being the only team that has beaten North in this season, the Lakers will be fired up and ready to beat North again.

Calloway County and North Marshall, thus far in their athletic relationship, have played 9 basketball games and Calloway High has won 6 of these contests while losing 3.

Date	Opponent	Location
April 13	Bradley	Home
April 15	Indiana State	Home
April 17	David Lipscomb	Home
April 20	Eastern Ill.	Home
April 23-24	Western Ky., Eastern Tenn., and Middle Tenn.

Date	Opponent	Location
April 27	David Lipscomb	Away
April 29	Southeast Mo.	Home
May 1	Univ. of Ala.	Home
May 4	Western Ky.	Away
May 6	Memphis State	Home
May 8	Bellarmine	Home
May 14-15	Ohio Valley Tournament	Johns City, Tennessee

Coach Howie Crittenden says that he just hopes that the Lakers can make this an interesting game for the fans.

The Lakers have only three more scheduled games remaining after playing North. They are Sedalia, February 12 at Home; Love, February 19 at Home; and Fulton County, February 26 at Fulton.

SELMA MISSION — Rep. Augustus F. Hawkins (above), D-Calif., and several other House members scheduled a mission to Selma, Ala., to observe voter registration efforts that have resulted in arrest of hundreds of Negroes.

Soup Supper

Light Ideas For The Menu

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

BEFORE a game of bridge, a trip to the movies or a church social, when the occasion calls for a not-too-heavy meal, what do you serve? A soup supper!

The soup (canned condensed) is easily prepared. Just heat and serve.

Menu Suggestions
For a soup supper menu, start French Onion-Vegetable and serve Spinach, Bacon, Tomato Salad with it.

Or make your menu Italian with Minestrone Venezia for the soup course and a Rice Shrimp, Green Pea Salad to round it off.

Add hot bread and an easy-to-make dessert with coffee for a dinner that's hearty but not heavy.

FRENCH ONION-VEGETABLE SOUP

1 (10½ oz.) can condensed vegetable soup
1 (10½ oz.) can condensed onion soup
2 soup cans water

4 to 6 slices French bread (about ½ in. thick)
Butter
Grated Parmesan cheese

Combine soups and water. Heat; simmer a few minutes. Meanwhile, arrange bread on cookie sheet; spread with butter; sprinkle with cheese. Broil until lightly browned.

Pour soup into bowls; top each with a slice of cheese toast.

Serves 4 to 6.

SPINACH, BACON, TOMATO SALAD

1 lb. young tender spinach
1 large tomato, cut in eighths

MINESTRONE VENEZIA, made with canned minestrone and canned chicken gumbo is topped with grated cheese.

2 slices bacon
2 tbsp. vinegar
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. pepper
2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced

Wash spinach, remove stems. Drain; add tomato.

Try bacon, drain and crumble. Reserve 1 tsp. fat. Add vinegar, salt and pepper. Heat. Pour over spinach. Add bacon; toss lightly. Garnish with egg slices. Serve immediately.

Serves 4 to 6.

MINESTRONE VENEZIA

1 (10½ oz.) can condensed minestrone soup
1 (10½ oz.) can condensed chicken gumbo soup

1½ soup cans water
Grated Parmesan cheese

Combine soups; add water. Heat, stirring now and then. Garnish with cheese.

Serves 4 to 6.

RICE, SHRIMP, GREEN PEA SALAD

1 c. rice
1 c. cooked shrimp, cleaned and deveined
½ c. thinly sliced celery

½ c. cooked peas
1 tsp. chopped pimiento
½ c. mayonnaise
½ c. French dressing

1 tsp. curry powder
½ tsp. salt
Dash pepper

Cook rice according to pkg. directions; chill.

Add shrimp, celery, peas and pimiento; toss lightly. Blend mayonnaise with remaining ingredients. Pour over rice-shrimp mixture; mix well. Refrigerate.

Serve the chilled salad on crisp greens.

Serves 4 to 6.

A HOT AND HEARTY soup is made by combining canned vegetable and onion soups. Cheese toast is served with it.

Dear Abby . . .

What's Your Guess?

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I recently met an attractive young woman at one of those cocktail parties where there were about 100 people milling around. She just wandered over and started talking to me. When I realized from her conversation that she was more than casually interested in me, I thought I had better set her straight, and I told her that I was married. She asked, "HAPPILY?" That, in my opinion, was an extremely personal question for one stranger to ask another. What do you think that young woman had in mind?

STRANGER IN UNIFORM
DEAR STRANGER: Some enchanted evening.

DEAR ABBY: Before my birthday an aunt of mine told my mother she was giving me money this year. She sent a money folder, the kind with a hole in it so you can see the picture on the bill. When I opened it, there was nothing inside. Now my mother says I have to write and thank my aunt for the "money." I say it's had enough to get kipped without having to struggle through a thank-you note for money I never got. I think she should tell my aunt what happened, but she won't. The same thing happened to me two years ago when I graduated from the eighth grade.

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 years old. The other night when I was baby-sitting my boy friend and his friend came over there about 8 o'clock. I didn't know they were coming. They live quite a ways from me so I let them in. The kids were still up so I let them sit right in the living room with us all the time the boys were there. We didn't do anything wrong. Well, today, Mrs.

called me up and asked if I had any company. I didn't want to be so I said yes. Then she said she didn't want me to baby-sit for her any more. This is the first time I ever did anything like that and I am scared stiff my mother will find out if she does. I'll get it and she'll never trust me again. Should I tell my mother? Or should I try to forget about it?

SCARED
DEAR SCARED: Tell your mother. And if you ever baby-sit again, NEVER let anyone visit you unless you have the approval of both the woman by whom you were hired AND your mother.

DEAR ABBY: This is in reference to the woman who refused to let her husband go hunting because she thought it was "inhuman." Far more deplorable of starvation than ever meet a hunter's bullet. Furthermore, fees from hunting licenses have meant the preservation of many species. I hope you will see fit to publish this in defense of hunters whom some people think of as third-seeking savages.

Fashionettes

The electronic age has come to hair styling. One New York hairdresser, John Fonda, announces a styling consultant service, via Picturephone, for women in the Chicago and Washington areas. The Picturephone enables callers to see each other as they talk. After the telephone consultation, the hairdresser sends the caller a geometric pattern and sketch, for a fee, so that anybody can have the "do" done by her local hairdresser.

It took a while for the fashion industry to promote the "look," but it's caught on in cold weather climates like the snuffies — the combination of fur hat, of fake fur hat, and boots. Around New York, the hats come in great bundles of long-haired furs, in mink, and in the fakes in both neutrals and bright shades — notably pink. Boots range in height from ankle to just below the knee.

THE U.S. FROM 1,500 MILES OUT—The new Tiros weather satellite sends back this view of the U.S. from 1,500 miles away, or out in space. It's the western half, with the Pacific Ocean on the left and outline of Lower California showing plainly in the middle. It covers some 4,840,000 square miles. The photo was received at Point Mugu, Calif.

MERLE NORMAN

Dry Skin Twins

When does your skin need the Dry Skin Twins? When your skin is dry, of course, but you'll be amazed how much these two preparations will do for an oily skin skin as well. Check with your Merle Norman demonstrator and she'll show you "dry spots" you didn't know you had. A blossom soon wilts from lack of moisture, and so will the skin when its thirst for oil and moisture is not quenched. Alternating the use of these two vital essentials will give your skin a healthy, smooth glow.

— SKIN TONER TWINS —

Even where there is excessive oil it is usually a combination of oil and dryness. It is rare that a skin is all dry or all oily. Begin now to treat your complexion with care — to bring back the balance. The Skin Twins supply two vital toners to help keep your skin smooth and normalized.

Catastrophes Take 1,350 Lives In '64

NEW YORK — Catastrophes last year took the lives of about 1,350 persons in the United States—some what fewer than in 1963, according to statisticians. Catastrophes are defined as accidents in which five or more persons are killed.

During the calendar year, there were eight catastrophes, each of which took more than 25 lives. Five involved aviation and three were natural disasters.

In the greatest of these catastrophes, 85 persons were killed on same number of persons were killed.

March 1, when an airplane of a non-scheduled carrier, crashed into a ridge near Lake Tahoe in California. Only a few days earlier—on February 25—53 persons were killed when a scheduled plane fell into Lake Pontchartrain, near New Orleans. Another scheduled plane crashed on May 1 near Concord, California, taking 44 lives.

Other aviation disasters were a crash which resulted in 29 deaths near Newport, Tennessee, on July 9, and another in Las Vegas during a snowstorm on November 15, when 79 persons were killed.

Two of the most serious occurred near the end of the year when high waters poured over large areas of several Western states and claimed about 40 lives. The other was in northern Montana on June 8 and 9, when 36 lives were lost. About the same number of persons were killed.

ed in the remaining natural disasters, a hurricane and associated tornadoes that struck southern Louisiana on October 3.

Last year, motor vehicle accidents accounted for almost one-third of all fatalities in which five or more persons were killed, the statisticians reported. Civil aviation accounted for one-fourth of the total; fires and explosions—mainly in homes and apartments—were responsible for one-fifth, and natural catastrophes for an additional one-seventh of the deaths. The remaining loss of life resulted mostly from military aviation accidents.

While catastrophic fires and explosions, motor vehicle accidents and accidents in mines and water transportation took fewer lives last year than in 1963, deaths from aviation disasters showed an appreciable rise in the year just ended.

THE MARSH SCREW, a 2,300-pound amphibious vehicle, driven by two rotating pontoons with spiral blades, is tested at Fort Lee, Va. It can be driven sideways by disengaging one pontoon and rotating the other. Speed is 20 mph. in snow, 8 in water. The Marsh Screw is aluminum, 13 feet long, 8 wide. It can traverse sand, rice paddies, swamps, etc.

CHAPTER 20

In planning the dance, Eloise Puchon was trying to make up for what she regarded as a sin of omission. She had made her illness an excuse for not giving her granddaughter Cecily all the parties she should have had after she left school. Now she was trying to make up for this neglect.

There was another reason, too. Eloise had always thought that Cecily would marry Simon Beaufort, and it now appeared that this wasn't going to happen. As for John Manetti, Eloise was sure that Cecily, did not think that he was the right man. The dance would be an attempt to get Cecily back into the social set where she belonged, and where men suitable as husbands would make their appearance.

Eloise had dearly wished that Simon and Cecily would marry, but now she would be happy to let Cecily make her own choice.

The list of girls was easy—those Cecily had gone to school with and those who had invited her to their parties. When it came to choosing men, Cecily insisted that she wanted to send invitations to Paul Dane and Vincent Leary, though her grandmother had never met either of them and had no idea of who their grandparents were.

Cecily assured her that both were presentable.

"Of course you must have Louise Thompson," John had said.

"No party would be a success without her," Cecily agreed with a sinking heart. Simon had told her that John had added himself to the list of Louise's many admirers and that he had discouraged everyone except Randy Chardin.

John urged Eloise to set an early date for the party. "I'm waiting for a call from Washington for an interview, and I want to play as hard as I can before I start work in earnest."

"We're living together," Simon complained to Cecily, "but I don't see much of Jack. He's in the morning even earlier than I am, playing golf or tennis or riding in the park, and he has an engagement every night. He's changed more than I thought possible."

Cecily had told Paul and Vincent about the dance, but neither of them gave it any thought until they received her invitations.

"It's nice of you to ask us, but aren't you pretty old for that sort of thing?" Paul asked her. "I don't know how old you are." Cecily's eyes twinkled. "I've never thought about it, but you must still be young enough to dance."

Vincent, an old man, over the girls' foreboding. Cecily, laughing. "There are at least two other ancient men coming. One of them must be thirty, and I do want you both there."

"Oh, we'll come. I'm not muscle-bound and I imagine that Vincent can still shake a pained leg."

A FEW minutes before the time set for Dr. Cheney's arrival, Vincent walked into the Flowering Vine. He looked relaxed when Cecily told him that she had heard nothing from John Manetti. They had only to walk back to the art gallery now closed and up two flights of stairs to Harold Lindquist's studio.

Lake many artists' studios, this one was sparsely furnished, except some uncomfortable folding chairs, which he had arranged in a semicircle. Louise Dupree was reclining on a chaise longue and already looked half asleep.

In addition to Cecily and Tease, there were seven other people in the room, none of whom Cecily had ever seen before. Four of them were middle-aged women and all three of the men looked as if they were husbands who had been dragged along against their will. Cecily wondered where Cheney had met them. He had said that no one could come without an invitation.

Cheney bowed without speaking, then he looked at his watch and closed the door with a decisive click.

"I had expected two other people, but if they come now, they will not be admitted. Our medium is prepared and must not be disturbed. You have all, except the last two arrivals, examined this room carefully and know there is nothing hidden; not that I expect any materializations or visible manifestations at this first seance, but one must be prepared for anything. I must ask that you sit quietly and make no disturbance, no matter what happens."

He distributed small note pads with pencils attached.

"If anyone wants to ask the spirit control questions, please write them and give them to me. It has been my observation that frequently a diversity of voices disturbs the spirit control."

He turned on a small standing lamp behind Tease, then turned off all the other lights, leaving the room in semidarkness except for the pale-blue gleam of the lamp beside Tease. Cheney ran his hand gently

HE'S A REAL PHONY—Daniel B. Skelly, 22, puts on a demonstration protesting a demonstration protesting arrest of Negro vote registration demonstrators in Selma, Ala. (Got that?) This piece of phony business is in Los Angeles. Skelly says he is a "probationary trooper" in the American Nazi Party. He shouted "Hell, Hitler!" several times, then poured liquid over himself. Just water, however.

Notions Prove Big Business

UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—To the dictionary, a notion is "a knickknack; any of various small useful articles." To the notions industry, a notion is big business—into the tune of $13 billion in annual sales.

That figure, a record, is forecast for 1964 when all the statistics are in. And the industry expects 1965 to show another gain, to bring sales to $13.5 billion.

These totals come from David S. Colton, president of the National Notion Association, which is holding its semi-annual business show at the New York Trade Show Building this week.

Colton gave reasons for the increase: "The emergency of new and diversified products, designed to correlate with today's creative and fashion-conscious society." This, he said, had "injected new vitality and growth into the industry," and he mentioned the expanded sales outlets, such as the supermarkets and the mail order houses.

Show 50,000 Items

Some 550 exhibitors are showing 50,000 items, including 10 product groups: sewing needs, closet accessories, household goods, girdles and bras, slippers-scoffs-robes, personal goods, hair goods, cutlery, rainwear, beachwear-sunglasses, and miscellaneous including exercise equipment and novelties.

There is a whole batch of battery-powered items on the market. Included at the show were a battery-powered fan for the traveler; "His" and "Her" electric hair brushes which the maker said would do 100 brushings in two minutes; a manicure set with abrasive discs and cyrind; suicide cream, duffing cream, orange stick and spinning brush; a bath brush with contoured handle; and cordless upholstery shampooer and vacuum brush.

Look Through Exhibits

A look through the exhibits produced these new products or variations of older ones:

An antenna lantern for the car. The lantern acts as a distress warning, through its flashing red signal.

For the traveler, an inflatable hanger for drip-dry clothing with rack for stockings included.

100 years ago, people didn't know much about the mentally retarded. So they shut them away.

But with what we now know, 85% of them could help support themselves with proper training.

So why don't we let them?

There's only one right answer: Ignorance. Plain, old-fashioned ignorance. Ignorance about just what a mentally retarded person is.

Ignorance which says the retarded is someone to be locked away. To be ashamed of. To be ignored. That's what he's not.

What he is, is one of the 5 1/2 million mentally retarded people in the United States. (126,000 more are born each year who will become retarded.)

He is a person whose mind—through no fault of his own—stopped growing long before it should have.

He is a person who can be helped. He is a person who might have been born completely normal if we had only acted a little faster.

Because with what we now know and with a little help, we could cut mental retardation in half.

Here are six things you can do now to help prevent mental retardation and bring new hope to the 5 1/2 million people whose minds are retarded:

1. If you expect a baby, stay under a doctor's or a hospital's care. Urge all expectant mothers to do so.
2. Visit local schools and urge them to provide special teachers and special classes to identify and help mentally retarded children early in their lives.
3. Urge your community to set up workshops to train retardates who are capable of employment.
4. Select jobs in your company that the mentally retarded can fill, and hire them.
5. Accept the mentally retarded as American citizens. Give them a chance to live useful, dignified lives in your community.
6. Write for the free booklet to the President's Committee on Mental Retardation, Washington, D.C.
